IELTS Overview

IELTS is the International English Language Testing System, the world's proven English language test.

IELTS was one of the pioneers of four skills English language testing over 25 years ago, and continues to set the standard for English language testing today.

IELTS is accepted as evidence of English language proficiency by over 9,000 organizations worldwide. Last year, more than 2.2 million tests were taken globally. IELTS is recognized as a secure, valid and reliable indicator of true-to-life ability to communicate in English for education, immigration and professional accreditation.

IELTS is jointly owned by British Council, IDP: IELTS Australia and Cambridge English Language Assessment through more than 900 test centers and locations in over 130 countries.

British Council

British Council connects people worldwide with the learning opportunities and creative ideas from the UK and builds lasting relationships between the UK and other countries. British Council is the UK's international organization for educational opportunity and cultural relations and is represented in 107 countries worldwide.

IELTS | Test Takers - Registering for the test

Where can I take IELTS?
You can take IELTS in over 900 locations worldwide. Search for your nearest test center on the IELTS Worldwide Search. IELTS centers have friendly, helpful staff who will help you with the registration process.

When can I take IELTS?
IELTS is available on 48 fixed dates a year – up to four times a month, depending on local demand. Go to your nearest center to see their next test date.

How much does it cost?
IELTS has a set fee for its test. The Academic and General Training tests are the same cost. To find out the test fee in your local currency, check the IELTS Worldwide Search for your nearest center.

How do I register for the test?
Find your nearest IELTS center and check the test dates to find the dates that suit you best. (You can also see the cost of the test at your center in local currency on the IELTS Worldwide Search.)

Check with your organization or on the Global Recognition System whether you need to sit IELTS Academic or General Training.

Print out the IELTS Application Form (PDF, 273KB) or ask your test center for a copy. Read the information for candidates, terms and conditions, complete the form and sign it. Please make sure you have a valid postal address and use the same name as on your passport.

If you want your results to be sent automatically to a university or educational institution, include the correct details on the IELTS Application Form.

Take your application into your IELTS test center with your money. If you send it by mail, please talk to your center about the method of payment.

Once you have registered, the test center will confirm your IELTS test date, time and venue. Please note the Speaking test can be up to 7 days before or after the test date.

On the test day, you must bring the same passport or national identity card that you entered on the Application Form.

What if I need to postpone or cancel my application?
If you postpone or cancel your application more than 5 weeks before the test date, you will receive a refund minus an administration charge.

If you postpone or cancel within 5 weeks of the test date, you will be charged the full fee unless you have a serious medical reason. If you provide a medical certificate within 5 days of the test date, you will receive a refund minus the local administrative cost. Please note, this does not apply to minor illnesses.

What if I am absent or sick on the test day?
If you are away on the test day with no prior notice, you will lose your full fee. However, in cases of serious illness, if you provide a medical certificate within 5 days of the test date, you will receive a refund minus the local administrative cost.

The Four Components of IELTS

Listening 30 Minutes
Candidates listen to four recorded texts, monologues and conversations by range of native speakers and write their answers to a series of questions.

Reading 60 Minutes
The reading component is of 40 questions. A variety of question types is used in order to test in a wide range of reading skills.

Writing 60 Minutes
The writing component of the Academic module includes two tasks. Topics are of general interest too, and suitable for candidates entering undergraduate or post-graduate studies or seeking professional registration.

Speaking 11 to 14 Minutes
The speaking component is delivered in such a way that does not allow candidates to rehearse set responses beforehand.
